WELCOME TO HAMPTON PARK

This handbook is more than a list of contacts—it's a snapshot of the people, passions, and projects that breathe life into our town. Inside, you'll find the community groups that make up the HP-Town Community Groups Collective—grassroots, local, and proudly shaped by the voices of those who call Hampton Park home.

It is a celebration of connection, collaboration, and the belief that every neighbour counts. Whether you're new to the area, or have been here for generations, we invite you to explore and connect with the groups that help our community thrive.

About the Collective

HP-Town Community Groups Collective began with a simple goal, bring people together. One year on, it has become a network of local community groups supporting each other, sharing resources, and working towards a more inclusive and resilient Hampton Park.

The story of HP-Town

Hampton Park's story spans over 60,000 years, from the Bunurong people who cared for the land, to early European settlers like the Edey family in the 1840s. The town grew steadily after World War I, especially with the development of the Lynbrook estate in the 1990s. Today, Hampton Park is a vibrant, diverse community with families from around the world, shaping a bright future together.
